PLEDGE YOUR SUPPORT FOR VOLUNTEERING

Volunteering is at the heart of communities across Ireland. It allows people to actively participate in and cultivate a sense of belonging to their local community. It supports organisations to deliver services locally and contributes to inclusive, sustainable communities. As an election candidate, Louth Volunteer Centre is asking you to show your support for volunteering by signing this pledge:

If elected, I will work to:

Support volunteering by listening to volunteers and volunteer involving organisations, and ensuring their views are represented at local level.

Facilitate the implementation of the national volunteering strategy.

Value volunteering by ensuring the work of volunteers is recognised at local level.

What we do:

Louth Volunteer Centre offers a free and independent matching service to encourage more people to get involved in volunteering in their community. We are the link between people who want to volunteer and community & voluntary groups looking for volunteers.

We promote, support and encourage volunteering and good practice in volunteering.

Who we are:

Our mission is to help individuals find meaningful opportunities to volunteer and to support not-for-profit organisations to involve volunteers in their work.

Our key values are equality, sense of community and professionalism
